

MINUTES OF THE OKALOOSA COUNTY LEAGUE
OF CITIES
QUARTERLY DINNER MEETING
DECEMBER 16, 1999

CALL TO ORDER: The evening began with a social hour from 6:00pm until 7:00pm with hors d'oeuvres being served. Mayor George Whitehurst welcomed the cities and guests to the dinner meeting. President Glenda Glover called the meeting to order.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS: President Glover announced the slate of officers for calendar year 2000 as submitted by the Board as follows:

President – Mayor Glenda Glover – Fort Walton Beach

Vice-President – Commissioner Heyward Strong – Valp

Secretary/Treasurer – Fay Miller – Laurel Hill

President Glover asked for nominations from the floor. There were none from the floor. Motion was made, seconded and unanimously approved, to accept the slate of officers as presented by the Board. Attorney Bill Parker of Crestview presided over the installation of officers.

Crestview Councilman Sam Hayes gave the invocation and everyone enjoyed a traditional Christmas dinner.

Mr. Emmett Windham, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, was the guest speaker. He spoke of what is happening in our school system and the changes that have come to pass during the last year. Further that our schools were in excellent step with other counties. He related what the students put in the time capsule and how the community and schools work together for outstanding communications between them.

Christmas music was provided by Travis Gillihan and enjoyed by all in attendance. The City of Crestview provided the door prizes and each table had a chance to win the arrangements.

ADJOURNMENT: There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 7:00pm.
